SERMON NOTES

The Ark & Dagon's Temple

Pastor Dustin

The Philistines captured the Ark of the Covenant, which in that culture meant the Philistine god was superior. The next day, after placing the Ark of the Covenant in the Temple of Dagon, the Philistines find the statue on its face as if bowing before the Ark. They reset the statue and the next day they again find it prostrate before the Ark, but this time the head and hands are broken off.

Have you ever worked so hard to achieve something, only for that very thing to begin to destroy you?

Name a deep desire you had, that in hindsight, would have been a poor road to take.

Name a time when all hope was lost, and somehow out of the ashes, God was still there, and working. At what moment, like in 1 Samuel 6 verse 13, did you finally realize God's love and see the Lord's provision?

1 Samuel 5:1-4

1 Samuel 6:1-2, 13

1 Samuel 7:12-13
